

SBSSV GERMAN KICK OFF CAMP

Are you great skier/ snowboarder but can't speak German and want to work in an Austrian Ski school?

Then look no further!

Why take part in the intensive German course?

- To pass the Anwärter exam! If you fail the German, you will not achieve the qualification.
- If you can speak German, you are more likely to get more work throughout the season as you will be able to teach in both English and German.
- It will help your learning and understanding on the ski course as the entire Anwärter course is carried out in German.
- Languages are a life-long skill.

What does the course entail?

- Five hours of lessons per day for four consecutive days in Kaprun, right before your Anwärter begins.
- The course is specifically geared towards the Anwärter and therefore the main focus will be on teaching in German in order to help you pass your course.
- You will be given tools to help you through the Anwärter lectures.

What does the course cost?

- € 249 plus MWST for the four day course (five hours per day).
- You will need to find your own accommodation - the youth hostel (where you will be staying during your ski course) is the best value and most convenient location.
- The course needs to be paid in full two weeks before the German Kick Off camp.
